NOVEMBER 2022 NEWSLETTER

Singer-Songwriter Showcase

Sunday, November 13,
2:30 - 4:00 PM

Each month, local singer-songwriters participate in an open mic for original music program that is open to anyone. Six of the most talented performers will treat our audience to a Songwriters-in-the-Round performance. Our lineup will include Josie Bello, the program coordinator and a local singer-songwriter who loves to tell stories through music, and has several songs airing on the radio both here and in Europe.

The other performers include Rick Bonilla, who is known for his writing of compelling songs about everyday life delivered with vocals reminiscent of Bob Dylan; George Gleixner an avid Tom Petty fan who sometimes opens for the Tom Petty tribute band Petty 5; Mike Mills, a popular Huntington based guitarist whose songs are stories of love and lust, falls from grace and redemption, and the quest for higher love. Also performing is Barbara Morris whose distinctive voice has been compared to Lucinda Williams. Emily Ramonetti, a Northport High School graduate currently enrolled at Berklee School of Music online, her lyrics and music resonate with listeners of all ages.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Free tickets are available at the Circulation Desk.

Sustainable Libraries Initiative

The Sustainable Libraries Initiative's Sustainable Libraries Certification Program (SLCP) provides library leaders with a tested, structured path forward to increase your library's commitment to environmental stewardship, economic feasibility, and social equity. Harborfields Library's progress so far...

- Established a "Green Team" of staff members to help guide the process.
- Presented a Sustainability Policy to the Library Board of Trustees, which was accepted and can be viewed on our website
- Hosted the Great Giveaway, where donated items are made available for free to the community
- Installed a Little Free Pantry in collaboration with the Harborfields High School Key Club
- Conducted an e-waste event at the library and semi-annual paper shredding events
- Collected 500 lbs of plastic and earned a new high performance composite bench that the library donated to The Robert Kubecka Memorial Garden
- Sponsored and maintained a raised bed at the Memorial Garden with Library volunteers and donated produce to a local food pantry
- Replaced the lighting in the meeting room wing with energy efficient LED lights

We will continue to include and update the community on our journey and progress towards certification.
