

Becoming a Library!

The School District conveyed the property to the Library District on June 12th, 1976. Through the efforts of many, the Broadway School transformed into a Library in two months, opening its doors to the public on August 13th.